Tours for organized adult groups in Ojcow National Park

Trips for organized groups of adults are led by tourist guides through tourist routes designated by the management of the Ojcow National Park

The route of the January Uprising 1863

On the anniversary of the outbreak of the January Uprising, we invite you on a hiking trail that leads through the battlefields, places of skirmishes of the January insurgents that took place in the Prądnik Valley. We will meet at the Castle in Pieskowa Skala where the skirmish of insurgents with Russian troops took place. After visiting the castle from this place, we will go to the nearby town of Skała to start a walk past the wooded slopes of the generator's valley passing subsequent places of fighting, the choleric cemetery and then descend the "wooden road" with a guide to Ojców - a place where 2,000 insurgents camped before setting off on combat trail.

In the price of this route:
- entry tickets to the Pieskowa Skała Castle, guide service in Polish for the duration of the trip.

The price does not include: transport, parking fees. It is possible to organize meals and additional attractions.
